FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

Twenty-Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time A

Through the Church, the King summons us to be with him every Sunday. It is a consequence of something beautiful he has done for us. Spending time with the King and eating from his table is how he wishes we sanctify our Sunday. We don't go because we're forced. We go because we belong to Christ - and therefore the Church commands what Christian life already requires. To miss Sunday Mass deliberately and without serious reason, is a grave breach in our relationship with Jesus and needs Confession to repair it. The vehement reaction of the King towards those who refuse his invitation should give us pause. The Sunday Eucharist is "the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice" (CCC 2181).The COVID concessions no longer apply to our Sunday obligation. If you can't make it for Sunday, go to the Saturday anticipated Mass. If on occasion it is impossible to go to either, then take a good 40 mins to read and reflect on the Liturgy of the Word on Sunday and make a spiritual communion. Be faithful. The Lord is always faithful to you.

Peace. Fr. John

PARISH SUPPER

Friday, after a long absence, a parish supper was held in our parish hall. The objective was two-fold. One was to raise funds in support of the parish activities, the second was to bring our faith community together in fellowship and friendship. The evening was an immense success with many former parishioners in attendance as well.

All who attended had nothing but compliments regarding the evening. As is the case with such events, they don't happen in a vacuum. It takes a group of dedicated volunteers prepared to give up hours of their time in planning and organizing the evening.

So, if you think of it, the next time you see Linda Cameron, Gail Preston, Lyall Campbell, Susan Lemieux, Theresa Ritchie, Bill and Linda Raby, take a moment to thank them for their commitment to the parish. A Grateful Parishioner

Our winners: 50/50 was Lewis Rowe, the cardinal birds was Beula Berndt.

A special thanks to our pastor, Father John, for his creation of the carved birds. His talent and pride out-shown on this masterpiece.
