FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time A

It is wisdom in this life to be vigilant in directing all our actions ultimately to the next. God himself assists us in this attentiveness for he comes to meet us in our every thought (Wisdom. 6:16). But it is our hope in the Lord Jesus who died and rose again and will come that keeps us alert to what really matters in this life. Such was the vigilance of the ten wise brides-maids. These, last weeks of the Church year raise our thoughts to the last things of life: the coming of the Lord, death, the final judgment, heaven and hell. In this month of November, we are also reminded of our own mortality as we pray for the repose of all the faithful departed. The Church attentive to the needs of the dead offers us the possibility of obtaining a plenary indulgence from November 1-8, for the dead by a visit to a cemetery under certain conditions: the praying of an Our Father, the recitation of the Creed, a prayer for the Holy Father, and sacramental Confession and Holy Communion.

Peace. Fr. John

REMEMBERANCE DAY - NOVEMBER 11TH

Canadians pause today in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world.

This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes.

THE BOOK OF LIFE

The month of November is a special month for praying for the faithful departed with whom we are in the same Communion of the Saints. We are therefore encouraged to keep them in our prayers and if possible, offer Masses on their behalf.

In our two parishes, we have a tradition of leaving our Book of Life at the front of the church for the month of November. The Book of Life contains the names of deceased parishioners and relatives. Some blank pages can be found in the front for anyone who wants to add names and comments. It is our way of expressing our faith that the dead find peace with God and will be raised to life when the Lord Jesus comes in glory.

As we call each name, a family member or a parishioner will light a taper from the Paschal Candle,

- which is a reminder of our own Baptism in Christ, where we were “called by name”.
- which is a reminder of our own faith and belief in eternal life.
- and which is a reminder to pray for all who have died.

The Book of Life will be placed next to the Easter Candle which speaks of the ultimate victory of life over death, of light over darkness, in the dead and risen Jesus. We are called to share in that victory.
